PPN LIVE IN SAN DIEGO

During the ASLA Conference on Landscape Architecture in San Diego this November, the Professional Practice Networks (PPNs) hosted presentations, panel discussions, and networking sessions in PPN Live on the EXPO floor, along with organizing PPN education sessions and other practice area-focused events.

ASLA CONFERENCE ON LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE HIGHLIGHTS

PPN MEETINGS & EDUCATION SESSIONS

PPN leadership teams curated and presented four education sessions on the PPN Live stage, providing one professional development hour (PDH) each and covering topics from planning resilient university campuses to the current state of knowledge of environmental justice in landscape architecture practice. PPNs also organized networking-focused gatherings and opportunities to continue the conversation with speakers from relevant sessions.

EXPO EDUCATION

In addition to the PPN Live stage presentations for PDH, ASLA also offered attendees the opportunity to network with PPN peers and product exhibitors through ten Explore the Floor sessions designed to highlight PPN topic areas. Participants learned about exhibitors' design solutions from subject-matter experts on each one-hour walk on the EXPO floor.

SPECIAL EVENTS: WILA WALK & HALS

The Women in Landscape Architecture Walk, organized by the San Diego Host Chapter and supported by the WILA PPN, drew well over 100 attendees to explore the nooks and crannies of San Diego's open spaces. The Historic American Landscapes Survey (HALS) Subcommittee of the Historic Preservation PPN met to announce the winners of the annual HALS Challenge competition and share updates from the HALS Chapter Liaisons.
