Service on National Committees

expand your knowledge base and gain exposure to national leaders

Why?

What?

How?

Learn

Actively participate and share experiences with fellow landscape architecture professionals in specific areas of interest and/or expertise.

Grow

As a national committee member, you will be exposed to like-minded landscape architecture professional leaders from across the country.

Advocate

Work with other professionals to learn how to lead while also gaining a deeper understanding of ASLA's most pressing issues

Volunteer

The committee service is voluntary, yet often times supported by your firm as a opportunity for professional growth and exposure.

Provide

The time commitment is typically 2-3 hours per month, with meetings most often being held via conference call.

Engage

Work collaboratively on a committee towards positive movement within an area of interest or passion to help guide the future of the profession and ASLA.

Support

As each year's incoming ASLA National President enters their tenure, they send out the call for committee support and assistance. Answer the call to volunteer.

Apply

Check for emails from ASLA leadership and staff. Also go to ASLA's website to apply online. www.asla.org/land/LandArticle.aspx?id=48725 2016's deadline is fast approaching – Midnight ET on Friday June 17, 2016.

Select

Find a committee that aligns closely with a passion, interest, or professional goal. Stay engaged!

Thank you for reading the Leadership Link. Look for the next issue on Wednesday, August 10th; Leadership Links will be delivered to your email on the second Wednesday of every-other month.
