

Parks for People Program Director: Boston

The Trust for Public Land creates parks and protects land for people, ensuring healthy, livable communities for generations to come. We have an opening for a Program Director in our Boston office. This position is responsible for oversight of all urban initiatives of The Trust for Public Land in Massachusetts, including the Boston urban agriculture initiative, the Boston-area Climate Smart Cities initiative, urban public finance campaigns, and expansion of impact into cities outside of the Boston area.

The position requires a bachelor's degree or equivalent, master's degree preferred in urban planning, non-profit management, landscape architecture, or a related field; 6+ years experience working in communities; experience working with governmental entities and partners; experience finding and securing funding sources; experience working with construction, including vendor management; and experience working with philanthropy. Supervisory experience and fluency in Spanish is a plus.

A full job description is available on www.tpl.org.

Please send a resume and cover letter to <http://tpl.catsone.com/careers/>