

Design Principal, Land Development Studio

Little, nationally recognized as a “Best Firm to Work For” and one of the nation’s most progressive design firms, is seeking a Design Principal with a positive, collaborative work style, who will lead the design of our projects in our Land Development Studio. The project work includes Commercial and Corporate Office Buildings, Retail Developments, Community Oriented Facilities, in addition to large scale Mixed Use projects in the U.S. and abroad

The ideal candidate for this opportunity will be a talented, resourceful, and creative design leader who is passionate about creating environments that improve the performance of our clients and enhance people’s lives through creative collaboration and breakthrough ideas. This person can be located in any one of our 5 US locations (Charlotte, NC; Durham, NC; DC; Newport Beach, CA or Orlando, FL).

A candidate we’ll love:

- If you are a talented designer and creative problem solver with deep experience designing for a broad range of clients and understand the drivers that are important to clients who believe that their environment should contribute to their culture and success.
- If you are knowledgeable of and are an advocate for sustainable and wellness design strategies and implementation
- If you’re good with people – you are an empathetic listener, genuinely interested in people, and are able to build consensus among clients and teammates, alike.
- If you’re a great communicator – you are great at simplifying complex ideas and relating them in a way that people understand, and you’re able to understand what other people are really saying.
- If you’re a good coach – even though you will lead design, you understand that sometimes you will be working through others to achieve the goal. You are patient and a good teacher.
- If you are passionate about design and have a strong attention to detail, guiding the design throughout the documentation phase
- If you have fun while you work and you’re fun to work with.

A position you’ll love:

- If you’re looking for an opportunity to make a difference leading design in our Land Development practice, working directly with our clients and the project team.
- If you enjoy working side-by-side with other studio leaders to execute the strategic plan to advance the office through the growth of various studios and our client mix.
- If you’re a thought leader, looking for opportunities to uncover break through ideas that matter to your client and those they serve.
- If you want to help shape the evolution of design in the firm by collaborating with your Design Director partners in other practice studios and in other offices.
- If you’re interested in working with a diversely talented design firm Ranked #40 in the US with the backing of diverse in-house resources.

Ideal candidates will have the following Qualifications:

- Landscape Architectural Registration is required; LEED Accredited professional is preferred;
- 7-15 years of experience in the landscape architectural & design industry;
- Excellent hand graphics and verbal communication;
- Excellent AutoCAD, Sketch Up, InDesign and/or other design software skills.

Our culture is energetic, collaborative and open. We value people who have a positive impact on those around them. We are proud to offer outstanding benefits, compensation, and growth opportunities. To be considered for this opportunity, please submit your resume and portfolio to:
