

Are you ready to join a company that invests in its employees? Do you want to work in an environment based on strong Core Values? Have you been looking for a position that's both rewarding and challenging in a culture that works hard, but plays harder? And how about an amazing benefits package with competitive pay? It really is that good at Dunaway! Dunaway Associates is a professional services company with a 61-year solid, results-oriented history. The firm provides GIS, civil engineering, structural engineering, planning, landscape architecture, environmental services, traffic and parking engineering, hydraulics/hydrology, and land surveying services to a wide variety of public and private clients and currently has four offices in Texas: Austin, Fort Worth, Midland, and San Antonio. We are rapidly growing and looking to expand our San Antonio office with our latest position of Landscape Architect II; details are listed below:

SUMMARY:

Assist the Project Manager and Director in all aspects of assigned projects with regard to Planning and Landscape Architecture, including client interaction, design, documentation, construction observation, and financials. Lead and train junior team members to deliver outstanding projects and customer service in accordance with Dunaway standards of quality and our Core Values

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Education/Experience

- Bachelor's Degree in landscape architecture
- At least five years related experience in landscape architecture

Technical Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

- Ability to draft and design routine to complex concepts within project discipline
- In-depth knowledge of preparation of construction documents as related to site design
- Knowledge of development and construction methods and materials
- Understanding of municipal zoning, subdivision, and environmental regulations
- Knowledge of and proficiency with AutoCAD, Photoshop, InDesign, and SketchUp design software
- Solid knowledge of and proficiency with MS Office, with strong skills in PowerPoint
- Knowledge of and ability to estimate costs associated with technical tasks
- Solid understanding and experience with design principles
- Basic understanding of project financial performance metrics

Soft/Other Skills

- Ability to assist the project manager in leading, and motivating a project team of different levels of employees
- Ability to assist in management of multiple projects and project teams successfully
- Excellent verbal and written communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to make timely decisions independently through sound judgment for the betterment of all team members and the company
- Effective problem-solving skills
- Ability to make effective formal verbal and written presentations to clients and all levels of employees, including management

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS:

- Prior business development experience
- Experience with construction observation

To apply for this position, visit our Careers page at: <http://hr.dunawayassociates.com/job-postings/>