

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT / PROJECT MANAGER
JBI Partners, Inc
16301 Quorum Drive Addison, Texas 75001

JBI Partners, Inc, a multi-disciplinary land development firm is searching for a creative, talented, and motivated Landscape Architect / Project Manager with excellent experience in residential neighborhood and park design. JBI is a well-respected firm, located in Addison, Texas has been serving the DFW Metroplex since 1982. Please learn more about JBI Partners, Inc. by visiting our web site at www.jbipartners.com

Our landscape architectural projects generally consist of site specific landscape design for single family residential developments, amenity design including entrance feature, monumentation, and open spaces, as well as, Municipal Park projects. This position will work with the all of the firm's professionals, including Planners, Engineers and Land Surveyors.

The successful candidate will exhibit the company values and will be an experienced, energetic and creative professional with a constructive and positive attitude and be able to lead a design team toward successful projects. They also must enjoy problem solving, taking ownership of their projects, and assisting in business development as appropriate.

Please apply by sending a portfolio of work including examples of hand graphics along with a resume to careers@jbipartners.com.

Qualifications and Responsibilities:

- Minimum 8+ years of experience in a Landscape Architectural firm or Multi-Disciplinary firm.
- Should be a graduate of an accredited landscape architecture degree program.
- Must be licensed or be able to achieve licensure in the State of Texas.
- Should have developed comprehensive project management skills and the ability to competently lead a project through the full scope of services from conceptual design to construction documents through final construction. Should also be able to track budgets, write proposals and research applicable codes and ordinances.
- Excellent graphic skills and extensive practical design experience with hardscape design, site grading and landscape planting design.
- Strong organizational skills and the ability to prioritize and delegate assignments.
- Demonstrate strong interpersonal skills including the ability to lead the project team, manage client expectations, interact with designers, engineers, sub-consultants and governmental staffs in a friendly, responsive and professional manner.
- Strong organizational and communication skills including both verbal and written and the ability to prioritize and delegate assignments
- Demonstrated ability in Construction Documents and Technical Specifications.
- Should be proficient in AutoCAD and Photoshop, as well as, conceptual sketching and hand drawing.
- Must have the current legal ability to work in the United States.

This is a full-time salaried position. Benefits include PTO, 401(k), health insurance and continuing education compensation. Salary will be dependent on experience and qualifications.