

Summer Internship, 2018

Doyle Herman Design Associates-Greenwich, CT

DHDA is an award-winning landscape design studio specializing in world-class residential design for projects across the U.S. and abroad. Based in Connecticut, our studio combines a high level of artistry with a healthy respect for architectural context through collaboration with renowned architects and interior designers. This position is for our Greenwich, CT office which is just 45 minutes from New York City (office is walkable from the Metro North station).

Internship Description:

The Summer Internship Program provides the opportunity to work in a truly collaborative setting, gain field work experience, and develop interests in the materiality of the landscape. Along with this the candidate will learn about office dynamics, submission requirements, permitting, plan approval process and interacting with clients.

As an intern you will be engaged in all of our office activities, including bi-weekly educational design sessions, studio field trips and occasional summer socials. We work hard, but like to have fun.

Responsibilities of the intern position would include, but not be limited to, CAD drafting, field work, submittal preparation, graphics and various other tasks.

This is a paid internship program and is highly competitive. Housing and transportation are the candidate's responsibility.

Qualifications:

Curiosity to learn about residential design
Interest in the allied arts such as architecture, interior design and furniture design
Desire to participate as part of a team
Organized and detail oriented
Outstanding design and presentation skills
Excellent written and verbal communication skills
Experience in AutoCAD, SketchUp, Adobe Suite, Microsoft and Lumion
Hand drawing skills and horticultural knowledge are an asset
